KENTUCKY DATES ALLOTTED

SERIES OF SPRING MEETINGS SCHEDULED TO BEGIN AT LEXINGTON APRIL 27.

Churchill Downs to Follow with Fifteen Days Begin ning May 11-Latonia Meeting to Begin May 30-Commission Will Not Appoint Officials.

Lexington, Ky., March 23.—The Kentucky State Racing Commission, all the members present and Col. E. F. Clay presiding, was in session here for about four and one-half hours today. Licenses to give race meetings during the year 1912 were granted to the Latonia Agricultural Association of Latonia, the Kentucky Association of Lexington, the New Louisville Jockey Club, and the Douglas Park Jockey Club of Louisville. Racing dates for the spring meetings were granted as follows:

Kentucky Association, Lexington, eleven days, from April 27 to May 9, inclusive.

New Louisville Jockey Club, Churchill Downs, fifteen days, from May 11 to May 28, inclusive.

Latonia Agricultural Association, Latonia, any twenty-four days between May 30 (Decoration Day) and July 4.

New Louisville Jockey Club, Churchill Downs, iffteen days, from May 11 to May 28, Inclusive. Latonia Agricultural Association, Latonia, any twenty-four days between May 30 (Decoration Day) and July 4.

The Douglas Park Jockey Club had made application for the dates that were granted to the New Louisville Jockey Club, and there being no other application for the dates, none were granted.

The application of the Keniucky Association made by letter was for thirteen days beginning April 27.

The applications of Latonia and Douglas Park were presented by Harvey Meyers, of Covington, and C. A. Tilles, who arrived from St. Louis this morning. Charles F. Grainger, president of the New Louisville Jockey Club, was present in the interest of that organization. These gentlemen discussed their claims in the presence of one another before the Commission, making their applications verbally and in writing. When the Commission had come to the conclusion about giving Latonia the sliding schedule of dates to include both Decoration Day and July 4th as had been requested. Captain Tilles was sent for and asked if they suited him. He replied that they did. He said that in that way they would be able to avoid competition with some of the big basebail games in Cinciunati that in the past had kept down the attendance at Latonia.

Nearly one half of the long session was taken up with discussion over the granting of a license to the Commission.

The amendment to rule 8, which specified that the commission should appoint the judges, handlcapper, starter and veterinarian at all race meetings, failed to carry. The racing associations will, as in the past, appoint all officials subject to the approval of the commission of an inspector of pari-mutuel machines and calculations, to be paid $20 per day by the association giving the meeting at which he acts, was introduced and will lie over for thirty days.

Richard E. Wilson appeared with an application for the reinstatement of the horse W. A. Leach and filed letters from Messrs. T. J. Clay and appointed. The matter is to lay over until the next meeting.

Fred A. Forsythe, of Chinn & Forsythe, Harrodsburg, appeared with a request that the commission amend the rule governing the run-ups so as to divort the one-half of the excess that goes now to the associations to the horsemen. He suggested that it be returned in the form of added money to purses. There was no action taken on this.

The report to the Legislature was approved and the secretary was ordered to revise and publish one thousand copies of the rules.

The secretary was directed to notify the racing associations that the time for making bids for the Kentucky Endurance Stakes of four miles to be run next fall and to have not less than $6,000 added, is extended to April 27, to which date the commission adjourned.

GIVES STABILITY TO CANADIAN TURF.

New Law Will Prevent Duplication of Meetings Un der Different Auspices on One Track.

Toronto, Ont., March 23.—The bill introduced in the House of Commons at Ottawa yesterday by the Minister of Justice does much to assure stability to racing in Canada. It provides that, in future, the right to hold meetings with betting, shall be exercised only by such clubs as are now in existence, and such new clubs as may be established by act of Parliament, or of the Provincial Legislatures. This puts out of possibility the multiplication of race courses under the simple authority of incorporation under the Joint Stock companies act. New clubs must have special legislation, and thus the great danger from vagrant promoters is practically eliminated. The charters for Mr. Robert Davies' Thorn-cliffe Park, near this city, and for the London Jockey Club, which had been on file for two years, were granted before the minister brought in the bill this week.

Another weak point in the situation is also remedied in Hon. Mr. Doherty's bill, which makes it clear that one club can not turn its course over to another after having had its own allotted period of fourteen days each year. The evasion of the intent of the old law by the Dufferin Park people, who used the Toronto Driving Club as a shield for a second meeting, is said to be the instance in mind, and this cannot happen again. The bill has passed the contentious stage and will become a law in a few days.

SEVEN STAKES FOR LEXINGTON MEETING

Three Events Recently Closed Received Satisfactory Total of 109 Entries.

Lexington, Ky., March 23.—With the closing of three extra stakes on Saturday last, the Kentucky Association will have seven attractive features for its coming spring meeting. The Breeders' Faturity, at four and one-half furlongs for two-year-olds, will, in point of monetary value at least, be the star number of the spring program. It is worth to date $5.395 and has seventy-live eligibles from which starters are to pay $75 each. The third Camden Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, at one mile and a quarter, is now worth $1.580 and has fourteen eligibles, the starting fee being $75. The second Blue Grass Stakes, for three-year-olds, at one mile and an eighth, has a present value of $1.860. with $75 from starters, there being $75. The second Blue Grass Stakes, for three-year-olds, at one mile and an eighth, has a present value of $1.860. with $75 from starters, there being eighteen eligibles, including the two great two-year-olds of 1911. Worth and The Manager, and it will probably be the vehicle for their first meeting. The Ashland Oaks, for three-year-old fillies at one mile, which is to be run for the first time since 1896, is worth at present $1.460, with twenty eligibles from which starters are to pay $75 each.

The three stakes closed last Saturday received a total of 103 entries, an average of thirty-six, and among them are some of the horses that promise to be most serviceable during the campaign of 1912 on the Kentucky tracks. The Phoenix Hotel Spring Handicap, one mile and a sixteenth, for three-year-olds and upward, $600 added, $ecived the following twenty-three at $10 each, with $25 additional rostart: Bell Horse, Princess Callaway, Ozana, Cherryola, Free Lance, John Louis, Foxy Mary, Sonada, Heatherbroom, Mary Davis, Jabot, Fashion Plate, Any Port, Fireman, Lady Lightning, Manager Mack, Mockler, Tom Bigbee, Kaiser, Sprite, Star O'Ryan, High Private, Console.

The Brewers' Selling Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, one mile, $600 added, $10 entrance and $25 from starters, received the follow

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey Herbert, who rode for William Gerst and others in this country, has left Germany for England where he will ride this year. He can still make 105 pounds riding weight.

There have been just fifty run-ups of winners in selling races at Charleston since the opening of the meeting, an average of almost one for every day that the meeting has run. The total of the run-ups is $18,945, of which amount the Charleston Fair and Racing Association receives half, the remainder going to the owners of the second horses.

mainder going to the owners of the second horses.

The British Columbia racing season of 1912 promises to be the best in the history of the thoroughbred sport, for, besides the several meetings which will be held at Minoru Park during the summer, the announcement is made that Victoria will also hold a series of meetings. The Victoria Will also hold a series of meetings. The Victoria Will also hold a series of meetings. The Victoria will also hold a series of meetings. The Victoria grounds track at the Willows, but this has all been settled now, according to Mr. Hugh Springer, who has just returned from a consultation with the capital city enthusiasts, and there will be no trouble in this connection this year. The Victoria meetings will be held in the fall. The horses will come here after the conclusion of the Spokane meeting in June. Victoria will operate the pari-mutuel system of betting, the same as here—Vancouver Sun.

PLAN FOR NEW TRACK AT LEXINGTON.

J. O. Keene at Work on Proposition Involving Sale of Present Plant.

Lexington, Ky., March 23.—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday were fine days. The sun shone brightly and the temperature demanded that overcoats be discarded. The main track at the Kentucky Association enclosure was drying out so rapidly that the trainers, wreathed in smiles, were sure the going would be fast by Thursday, but along came a rain late in the night of Wednesday that made the track muddy again and by Thursday evening there were icicles hanging from the caves of—the barns with the wind childing to the marrow. It would seem that, taking into account the severity of the winter just passing, spring should be a reality within another week at least. If so, training operations here will go forward satisfactorily.

The want of a good track to exercise over and the fear that the mile oval here could not be put in proper condition for fast moves sufficiently early caused Thomas C. McDowell to ship his string of fourteen, headed by that 'good three-year-old. The Manager, to Louisville last Thursday. J. O. Keene is also talking of going to Louisville. "I would have gone when Mr. McDowell shipped, had it nof been for the fact that I have a large quantity of feed in my barn here that I do not care to transport." said he. "However, if the weather continues unsettled and the track is not good by April 1, I will ship."

Mr. Keene has a big scheme that he is talking to all who will listen these days. He wants to form a $300,000 company to buy the old plant here, cut it into building lots, sell it, and build a new and thoroughly up-to-date racing ground at some suitable place within a mile or two of this city on the interurban and steam railway lines. It is his idea that subscriptions of one share of stock each from persons interested in the sport of racing at $500 per share be taken, with the understanding that they are to receive a life membership and badge and that when the subscriber dies his share becomes the property of the club, to be re-sold. There would be no dividends under the Keene plan and the profits from the breeding interests."

J. O. Keene has sixteen horses in his string for 1912. There are four three-year-olds—Wheelwright, Praetorian, Merode and Bonne Chance—and twelve two-year-olds. The three-year-olds and the following six two-year-olds are owned by Johnson N. Camden: Ancon, b. g. by Mazagan—Sister Juliet. Connaught, b. g. by Mazagan—The Mecca. MISSOURI BREEDING BUREAU ORGANIZED.

Officers Elected and Much Enthusiasm Shown in Plans for Work of Bureau.

St. Louis, Mo., March 23.—The meeting held at Jefferson City last Wednesday night for the purpose of organizing the bureau for breeding army remounts in the state of Missouri created considerable enthusiasm the capacious hall of the Madison House being crowded with borsemen from all over the State. These embraced practically every type of the light horse breeder and there was a unanimous opinion that tremendous good could be done to the horse industry of the state by actively aiding the government.

Mountain; A. R. McComas, Sturgeon; R. B. Thiey, Plato; and William Harrison of Marshall.

The annual dues were placed at $2 with a view to making the movement a popular one in every respect. The secretary, under the direction of the president, will work out a plan to establish a stud book which will include every grade of stallions and mares suitable for army remounts. The stud book will include a correct list of foals which shall be furnished to the government for the use of its agents in purchasing remounts. The secretary will also scente a report from the breeders of the state of horses in their possession suitable for this purpose for the information of the government of the president and will remain the property of the president and will remain the property of the bard of directors.

The produce of these horses will be turned over to the government under a contract made with the owners of the mares at a price to be agreed upon between them and the government's agents.

The following telegram was received from General Leonard Wood, Chief of Staff:

"A ssure you of the deep interest of the depart ment and army generally in the success of your undertaking, which bids fair to be of the greatest service in improving the quality of mounts and improving the breed of horses generally thronghout the country."

Angust Belmont sent the following telegram:

"Regret extremely that I cannot be with you to a sistance within my power to further the growth and success of your association. What is needed are stallions wisely distributed through your state and government to any power to further the growth and success of your association. What is needed are stallions wisely distributed through your state and government to not overcome a shorting of the house government to take horses at two years old and develop them. The English are bed in an effort to overcome a shorting of the proper remounts.

MERIDIAN TAKES A STAKE

CARMAN RACER WINS THE ARGYLE HOTEL HANDICAP AT PALMETTO PARK.

Mud Runners Again Get Chance as Result of Morning Downpour-April 20 Decided Upon for Closing of Charleston Meeting.

Charleston, S. C., March 23.—R. F. Carman scored his second stake victory of this season when Meridian finished first in the Argyle Hotel Handicap at six furlongs, with a fair band of sprinters that included Helen Barbee and Martin W. Littleton behind him, Meridian's performance was the most meritorious from the fact that he was conceding much weight to the other starters and that the soft track was to his disliking. T. Koepner, his rider, hustled him hard from the rise of the barrier and forced him to keep pace, with the fleet Trance and Isidora during the early stages. On the stretch turn he dashed into a commanding lead and thereafter the issue was never in doubt.

A heavy rain this morning, confined mostly to Palmetto Park and its immediate vicinity, made the track muddy, caused a slump in attendance and resulted, in numerous withdrawals from the various races. Form, however, was well conserved, five public choices scoring. The bookmakers were again hard hit. Catesby Woodford's racing establishment uncovered a good two-year-old in the opener in Christmas Star. The filly was backed with confidence and scored in easy fashion.

Announcement was made today by General Manager Francis J. Pons that the racing here would terminate on Saturday, April 20, Sanction will be asked of the Jockey Club for the extra day, as the original seventy-five days will expire Friday, April 19. It is thought unlikely that the Jockey Club will withhold its permissions regarding the future of Palmetto Park and its racing after the present meeting is brought to a close, Manager Pons today announced in positive terms that there would be a continuation of the sport here and that a fall meeting is brought to a close, Manager Pons today announced in positive terms that there would be a continuation of the sport here and that a fall meeting is in prospect, as well as winter and spring racing. "Our future meetings should be superior to this one, for there has been many circumstances that have served as a big drawback," said Mr. Pons. "The chi

CARELESSNESS COSTS TOURIST A PURSE.

El Paso, Tex., March 23.—Three favorites and three long shots made up the eard here today; and all the races were keenly contested. Tourist, the odds-on favorite in the third race, was the victim of a careless ride by jockey Grand. He jumped in the air at the start, was rapidly rushed up to his company, worked his way through and wore down Manasseh, the pacemaker, a sixteenth from the finish. There was open daylight between them and Grand was only watching Manasseh on the rail, when Dudo came like a cyclone and nipped him on the post.

Dudo came like a cyclole and hipper like of post.

Starter Cassidy was taken suddenly ill with a slight attack of ptomaine poisoning before the first race and Harry Morrissey,, one of his assistants, dispatched the fields today. Mr. Morrissey has been an understudy of starter Cassidy for the past few years and during the recent twelve-days meeting held in ehe City of Mexico did the starting, his work at the barrier being excellent. He has been offered the position of starter on the western Canadian circuit from Winnipeg to Calgary, where there will be some forty days of racing the coming summer.

HORSES FOR KENTUCKY RACING.

Special Trains Due to Reach Louisville from Juarez the Coming Thursday.

Louisville, Ky., March 23.—On Thursday of next week there will arrive, for the spring race meeting at Churchill Downs, a special trainload of horses which were campaigned the past winter at Juarez, Mex. The consignment will embrace thoroughbreds owned by W. H. Flzer, Herman R. Brandt,, George M. Odom, D. C. Cottle, Henderson & Hogan, J. H. Mead, W. J. Spiers, R. J. Powers, J. M. Henry, J. Sweeney, W. St. Vincent, W. McElderry, R. G. Martin, G. H. Coyle, F. Otis and J. W. Young. While this shipment does not represent the usually large number of racers sent north for the opening campaign in Kentucky, still it makes up in quality for the lack of quantity. There was, at all times, during the 102 days of racing at Juarez, excellent sport and a vast majority of the horses which made this possible will be at the Downs, reinforced by the best of the horses now running at Charleston. In addition there will be those horses that wintered at Lexington and vicinity. It is certain that the class of racing in Louisville this spring will be up to the usual high standard.

The most notable arrival during the week at Douglas Park was Major T. C. McDowell's The Manager, regarded by his owner and others as a real contender for Kentucky Derby honors this spring. The Manager heads the McDowell band which is made up of Affable, Accord, Nonpareli, Star Jasmine, True Blue, McCorkle, Understudy, Star Actress, Old Guard, Ilma and four unnamed colts. The Manager looks to be in fine condition. In truth, all of the McDowell horses wintered well. Major McDowell expresses the belief that The Manager must be seriously reckoned with in the Derby, This son of Voter and Bracegirdle met defeat but once as a two-year-old, his most notable victory being in the Breeders' Futurity. The major is of the opinion that Catesby Woodford's Sonada will prove a dangerous factor in the Derby, He bases this belief upon some of the trials of Sonada on the Exposition track, a half mile course near Charleston, Jack McCormack, who for years was foreman for S. C. Hildreth, is now in charge of Sonada, and he pronounces the colt a good one, Peter Wimmer originally owned a half interest in Sonada, but disposed of it to Mr. Woodford, Mr. Wimmer, according to reports from Charleston, shares the belief of Major McDowell is optimistic relative to his stable and racing conditions in general. He is confident that on the Kentucky courses this spring and suumer some really good horses will be developed. He is pinning his faith, in addition to The Manager, to such horses as True Blue, a bay filly by Hastings—St. Agnes; Star Jasmine, a brown filly by Ogden—Star Cat, and McCorkle, a bay colt by Disguise—Quardruplex. McCorke is owned by W. F. McCracken, of Canada, This colt showed great speed in his year Went to post at 2:29. At post 3 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving.

CHRISTMAS STAR, a reported good one, was away fast and, showing much speed, alternated with ETH-ELBURG II. in pacemaking to the stretch and drew out decisively in the last furlong. YEMASSEE stood the final drive gamely and got up in the last few strides for second place. ETHELBURG II. ran well and appeared to have the race at her mercy to the last furlong, but tired unexpectedly. MISS EDITH suffered from keen interference in the first quarter and probably would have been second with a clear course. ELLA GRANE was almost thrown on the first turn.

Winner—B. m, by Hamburg—Morningside (trained by W. O. Joplin).

Went to post at 5:09. At post 3 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. PARKVIEW, under a good rider, was hustled into a long lead at once and won all the way, but was tiring fast at the end. NAUGHTY LAD showed suddenly improved form and, closing a big gap, finished with a rush into a gaining second. MONTGOMERY ran well throughout and finished gamely. HENRY HUTCHISON showed speed, but tired in the last quarter. LONGHAND sulked early and finished fast. SEMI-QUAVER showed early speed. AGNAR ran fairly well. The winner, entered for $400, was bid up to $805 and bought in.

correct by Daily Racing Form. These are the horses I sent to every one, vadvertisements of last week. They were free to all. I charged nothing exgrams. If you did not take advantage of my free offer last week it is your of you that I would prove to you that I could make you win a nice income ever, that is past. Let us look to the future. Listen to what I have to say:

On Tuesday, March 26,

MY BEST RECOMMENDATION IS that I have not lost a client since I have been selling this information, beginning February 18. This shows you how good my information really is.

WILL YOU JOIN ME THIS WEEK? IT WILL BE THE VERY BEST INVESTMENT YOU EVER MADE.

now that the Charleston meeting is coming to an end, all the good things that have been kept in reserve will be ready to go over one after the other at good prices. The first I know of through my connections has been primed for a GETAWAY COUP, THURSDAY, MARCH 28. This is about as sweet a proposition as one would want to get in on— while the price may only be 4 OR 5 TO 1. I can conservatively say it looks like the surest winner I ever had. They have been getting this one ready for some time to clean up. By good fortune I managed to make arrangements with these stable people on a guarantee which compels me to interest 200 people who will promise to wager $5 straight on what I send THURSDAY, or any other day I have a horse starting, and who will REMIT THE PROFITS by telegraph the day after race. Also note, your name will be taken off list until remittance is received. If you are honest, send correct name and address at once. I can include you on some of the best things of the current season if you are honest and remit promptly. Do your part and I will do mine.

It's a "Guaranteed Easy to Play Winning Handbook System" and is in a class by itself. Price $20 in payments of $5 cach week out of your "Profits" as above stated. I want to hear from anyone who has ever received other than a "Square Deal" from me. All Orders filled promptly the same day received. I am too busy to say more at this time. WM. H. SUITTON. Chemist

THE Missouri System

We show you below the actual results of a $10 straight and $15 place, 2t closing odds, on every horse wired our patrons the past week. We make no mistakes, nor take claims. All figures, published in this advertisement, are correct, otherwise they could not be printed here. Our information is invariably filed with Daily Racing Form before the races are run. Enough said along those lines. In regard to our information, it is sufficient to say that we spare no money in order to get winners, and are betting commissioners for successful turfmen who cleaned up on the Canadian Circuit during the last two years, and who have powerful connections in Kentucky. In both of these localities the racers are getting ready for the word, and so are we. Can you use this kind of information, the value of which is shown in the following figures, published in conjunction with filed information?
